

The Website Interface and layout must be attractive and appealing, reflecting the appropriate hydro power sector with corresponding ease-of-use and navigation.

2.1.4 Website Functions

Control Panel for Site Admin

Multi browser/accessibility/physical impairment compliance.

Ability to edit any page.

Ability to add/edit Page titles, Meta Description and Keywords.

Ability to add PDF's, files, images, page styles, colours, formatting, tables, internal/external links and symbols.

USER management

ADD users

Edit users.

EVENTS

Add events(Title, date & description)

Edit events

Remove events

Members area- Members will have to sign up to gain access to the members area (it is currently most of the content now publicly available in the 'news & events' area.

Members variables to be detailed at a later stage.

The members area will allow Aqua media to add any content into this members area using the control panel with the ability to add PDF's, files, images, page styles, colours, formatting, tables, internal/external links and symbols

Forum

A forum to allow members to leave messages and discuss topics

To be moderated by a staff of Aqua Media.

Search Site

A search box will allow users to input words which will search the website for any matching words/phrases

Online Subscriptions

Ecommerce functionality will be included to allow subscriptions to be purchased via the website.

Newsletter

Ability for users to add their email and signup for future newsletter.

We can give you the ability to edit your sign ups online and send emails automatically to the users.